

A Personal Plea to:
SAVE LIFEFORCE

Remember these Lifeforce success stories?

We changed history and the lives of many.

First Ecology Organization to protect people, animals and the environment. (1980)
First Animal Rights Day - Vancouver 1983.

Lifeforce ultralight plane used to stop Sealand aquarium from capturing orcas in BC waters. (1982)

Hunter shoots at Lifeforce. Duck hunting area closes in Richmond. (1982)

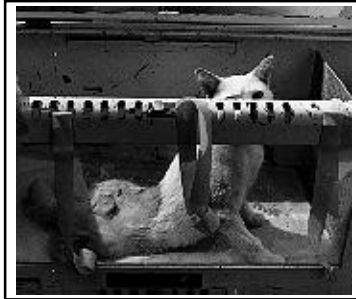

Barbaric dog electrocution and other cruel methods stopped in BC pounds.

"Artist" stopped from crushing Sniffy and other animals. (1990)

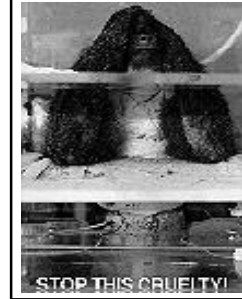

1980s & 90s - First film and photographs exposing and stopping vivisection atrocities.

Spinal Cord Experiments on cats. Even the backs of Canada Geese caught in Stanley Park are broken. (1988)

Martha's suffering ends in military lab. (1984) Monkeys, Beau and Captain, not restrained for 1 1/2 months. (1983)

First Canadian Cruelty charges against vivisectors frees baboon "B43 - Debbie". (1988)

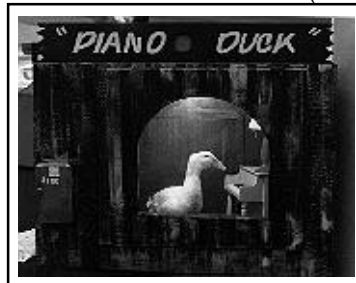

Postcard campaigns against burning and blinding animals at Vancouver General Hospital. (1989 - 1998)

Zoos Closed and Circus Animal Bans

- Tynehead Zoological Society tries to get baby elephant. (EXPO 1988) Later gives up plans to build a zoo in Surrey, BC.
- Stanley Park Zoo expansion defeated and zoo closes. Stanley Park pro-zoo group renamed Stanley Park Ecology Society but loses $1 million grant. (90s)
- Stanley Park designated as a National Historic Site. (1989)

Protected marine wildlife through Marine Life Programs. Confronted wildlife vivisectors. (1993-1998)

PNE stops pigs races and animals in vending machines. (1987) In 1988 they stopped baby chimp acts.

Vancouver Aquarium breaks promise and captures three more belugas. (1990) Canada bans beluga exports.

"Pet" monkeys sent to Texas sanctuary (1996).

These are just a few of Lifeforce accomplishments. But our successes will not continue without your immediate financial help. Donations are desperately needed because we are broke. Please help us continue this crucial work.

Peace on Earth for All Life, Peter Hamilton
Box 3117, Vancouver, BC, V6B 3X6 (604)669-4673